☀️ Summer Sky Wisdom: Cancer • Leo • Virgo

A Seasonal Guide to the Archetypes Illuminated by the Sun

🌀 Cuning Folk knew the sky as a sacred mirror.

They watched the sun's path through the constellations as a way to track the inner seasons of the soul.

Each zodiac sign holds an archetypal key—a wisdom teaching encoded in light.

In summer, the sun moves through three sky gateways:

Each offers an invitation to reclaim your intuitive belonging and sacred rhythm.

🌊 CANCER (June 21 – July 22)

The Waters of Belonging | The Cardinal Initiator

- Archetypal Role: The Root Mother, the Sacred Container, the Feeling One
- Sky Wisdom: Initiates you into deep feeling, ancestral memory, and emotional intuition
- Ask Yourself: Where am I ready to return to myself and feel what I've been avoiding?

"Cancer begins the summer with a call back to the sacred waters. She asks you to come home—not to a place, but to the truth of your own feeling body."

🔥 LEO (July 23 – August 22)

The Fire of Radiance | The Fixed Stabilizer

- Archetypal Role: The Inner Flame, the Creative Heart, the Sovereign Child

- Sky Wisdom: Stabilizes creative self-expression, sacred confidence, and joyful embodiment
- Ask Yourself: Where does your inner fire want to shine more boldly?

“Leo stands at the heart of summer, saying: I am here. Let me burn with the light of my truest self.”

VIRGO (August 23 – September 22)

The Harvest of Clarity | The Mutable Integrator

- Archetypal Role: The Sacred Organizer, the Earth Priestess, the Healer of Patterns
- Sky Wisdom: Integrates discernment, refinement, and healing through sacred pattern
- Ask Yourself: What rhythms no longer serve—and what sacred order longs to emerge?

“Virgo ends summer by inviting you to make whole what has been scattered. She is the keeper of sacred pattern, the weaver of harvest wisdom.”
